DAY 1

* Haridwar – Joshimath

From Haridwar, we'll travel along the Ganga and Alaknanda rivers to Joshimath. Haridwar is known as "DevBhoomi" (Lands of Gods) due to mythology beliefs that it is the abode of God and Goddess. Many trekkers begin their journey in Rishikesh, which is located along the way. We will drive through the holy towns of Rishikesh, Rudra Prayag, and Dev Prayag, which will be very fun. You'll enjoy seeing several live streams and green mountains along the way. Since the road from Haridwar to Joshimath is 280 kilometres long, it will take approximately 9 to 10 hours to arrive in Joshimath. Joshimath is a nice place to spend the night.

From there, we'll begin our trek by crossing the Alaknanda River via a bridge at Govindghat. We'll then begin walking towards the Bhyundar valley, passing through lush forest areas and a few villages. On our first day of trekking, we will be greeted by a lush green landscape and cascading waterfalls as we embark on a 14 km mild gradient trek to Ghanghria, which will take around 4-5 hours. DAY 3

★ Ghangaria - Valley Of Flowers - Ghangaria Trek

This is the day we'll make the much-anticipated quick climb to the valley, and we promise it won't let us down. Its calm and calming landscape will touch your spirit, and you will be able to see what nature looks like when it is unaffected. The trail from Ghangaria to Valley of Flowers is approximately 7 to 8 miles long, and it will take nearly 5 hours to reach the destination spot. Sprawling green meadows, adorned with a variety of alpine flowers and bubbling little streams – all surrounded by picturesque mountains. At the valley's entry, the Ratban Parvat welcomes you to the left of the Nar Parvat, which divides the Badrinath valley from the valley of flowers. We'll spend 3-4 hours taking in the mind-boggling majesty of the valley before returning to our Ghangria Guest House.

★ Ghangaria - Hemkund Sahib - Ghangaria Trek

Today's Valley of Flowers trek will take you to Hemkund Sahib, a well-known Sikh shrine situated next to a tranquil lake surrounded by wildflowers. The temple is situated next to the pool. In the winter, the lake freezes completely. It will take us 3-4 hours to complete the climb, which is steep at times. Pilgrims sometimes take a dive in the lake's bitterly cold water, which is a challenging activity. The hot tea served in the Gurudwara afterwards, on the other hand, is divine. We'll also pay a visit to the Laxman Mandir, which is located next to the Gurudwara, before returning to Ghangria. Staying in a Guest House for the night.

* Ghangharia - Govindghat - Joshimath Trek

A return trek to Govindghat and a fast drive from there will lead us to Joshimath, the end of our trek. You are free to visit Badrinath's temple town and then travel to Joshimath on your own. If you are spiritual or not, the temple, which is located on the banks of the holy Alaknanda and is surrounded by the Neelkanth hill, is a peaceful place to visit. The hot sulphur water springs add to the charm! We'll return to Joshimath as dusk sets and treat ourselves to a hot shower and a decent meal before settling in for an overnight stay. We'll go on a fast hike that will last no longer than 2-3 hours. After arriving in Joshimath, you will have the whole day to relax and explore local attractions.

* Joshimath - Haridwar

We will depart from Joshimath for Haridwar after finishing breakfast. It would take about 8-9 hours to fly. You'll arrive in Haridwar in the evening. Many trekkers choose to stop in Rishikesh, which is located along the highway, on their way back to Haridwar. While our hearts and minds do not want to come to an end, we do. Finally, the Valley of Flowers quest comes to an end here.
