

Black Peak Expedition

(Dehradun to Dehradun)

(Sankri To Sankri)

Overview

Region :- Uttarakhand

Duration :- 16 Days

Max Altitude :- 6,387 Meter

Grade :- Technical, Difficult, or Challenging

Kalanag is one of the best expeditions which has become most preferred expedition today. Climbing this mountain is everyone's dream. It's situated in Uttarkashi district of Uttarakhand. This is connected Swargarohini peak and Bandarpoonch. The height of this peak is 6387 Meter The expedition starts from base camp Sankri. Ruinsara Tal and kyarkoti is the base camp of this trek. Its look like the Snake shape due to slope in front the snow does not stop. That's why it looks black from the front.

This is why it is called Kalanag peak. The Black Peak Expedition in the local dialect is known as “Kala Nag” it is named so because top part of this peak resembles Black Cobra. This is the highest peak in Saraswati Mountain Range Bandarpoonch at an altitude of 6,387 meters, near Ruinsara valley. Other peaks are Bandarpoonch (I) (6316 m) and Hanuman Parvat (Bandarpoonch II) (6,102 m).

Here together with Swargarohini and Bandarpoonch creates a beautiful mountain range. This expedition becomes more popular. Who wants to climb the Mount Everest, it is very important that they have to do it first for experience and to increase the confidence level.
